ahead Robins

WYCOMBE WAND 3 CARSHALTON ATH 2

IF Gary Allen had been playing instead of injured. Thursday's Isthmian League Premier Division match could so other way.

It was Robins' first visit to the slopes of sion on the large crowd. ed to more purpose. writes Fred Philpot.

in their first attack after just booked for dissent. five minutes when John Roseman, deputising for Allen, pounced on a shocking back pass to beat the stranded Peter equalised with the best goal of the match after good work by Derek Harris.

Wycombe were pushing up in force, but when Carshalton did get in quickly they usually won the day against a rearguard that looked suspect despite the presence of Alan Phillips and Paul Birdseye.

COUNTER-ATTACK

They were always vulnerable to the quick counter-thrust and it happened again in the 22nd minute when Tony Maurice broke up a home attack to set Robin Kember on his way with a great ball and the midfield man took his chance in style . giving Robins nine goals from their last three games.

This reverse spurred the home side to come at Robins who were pinned in their own half for long spells when a more offensive Carshalton view might have paid off, for a third goal would surely have killed home hopes.

However, some great defensive work by skipper Gaydon, plus a couple of magnifient saves by Ian Finch kept the home side at bay for almost 40. minutes.

Then came a double killer blow with two Wycombe goals inside three minutes.

It began with a corner in the 59th minute when Keith Mead hooked home in a crowded goalmouth (and) ended a two minutes later when unlucky Bob Addaway headed a cross into his own net for the winner easily have gone the when the ball could so easily have spun off to safety.

The visitors went back on to attack and might have had a penalty when Phillips appeared Loakes Park and they to handle. In addition, Steve made quite an impres- Bangs had a header scooped off the line while Graham Dennis watched another ball In fact, they led twice scrambled clear with Spittle and might have taken the well beaten. It seemed to inpoints if they had attack- dicate that a more adventurous policy from Robins might have paid off earlier.

And Carshalton suffered a The visitors made a dream further blow near the end when start with a gift-wrapped goal. Dennis was rather harshly

> Wycombe.—Spittle, Birdseye, Priestley, Mead, Phillips. Day, Mackenzie, Kennedy, Harris, Holifield, Horseman

Spittle.

However, the lead was short lived and Wanderers were back on terms within two minutes when Graham Mackenzie Gedney.

Carshalton.—Finch,
Maurice, Bangs, Addaway,
Gaydon, Kember, Roseman,
Dade, Dennis, Walker,